GRIYA COLLECTION

The Griya collection draws inspiration from the Joglo; a traditional Central Javanese house. A Joglo consists of overlapping beams that are crucial to supporting its structure. These beams are usually intricately adorned with varied organic patterns.

The complex corresponding wooden structure and the hand carved symbols reflect a refined and intricate appreciation for harmony and balance.

The Griya collection explores this traditional visual representation of family and home.

The collection captures the organic patterns and structural layering in a range of simple shapes with elegant detailing. Consisting of a wide variety of serving and dining dishes, Griya places emphasis on family and is designed for 'lauk pauk' /shared home style dining. The classic gloss Celadon glaze pairs perfectly with warm wooden tones and surfaces, representing the relationship between structural and natural elements in our daily home rituals.

The collection consists of 6 dining items, 4 serving items and 2 drink-ware items.
