LONTAR COLLECTION

Inspired by the Lontar Palm and its significance in Indonesian culture, this collection comprises of dining pieces suitable for western, Japanese and Indonesian cuisine.

In Balinese culture, the Lontar leaf can be found in daily offerings, decorative ornaments for ceremonies and was also used to create paper for old manuscripts. Our design takes a closer look at the 'jejaitan' process; a decorative method of creating offerings through sewing the lontar leaves together with bamboo pins. The angled and flat silhouettes of the shapes reflect the forms created through this process.

The collection comes in two glaze options ;ochre brown and palm green. Both gloss finishes create a unique sense of depth through its tone-to-tone colour variation.

The lontar collection comprises of :

A serving plate, dinner plate, dessert plate, b&b plate, pasta bowl, soup bowl, rice/miso bowl with lid, sauce dish, salt & pepper container, sake cup and tea cup with lid.
